

RED CROSS BLOOD SERVICE PERILED

Ability of the Los Angeles Regional Red Cross Blood Service to deliver the rare human serum albumin—a whole blood derivative—to four patients battling for recovery from nephrosis at White Memorial Hospital has been "seriously jeopardized" by the lack of volunteer blood donors.

This warning was sounded from Red Cross Blood Service headquarters, 925 South West

Normont PTA Hears Panel Discussion

Three mothers and three sixth grade students of Normont School took part in a panel discussion at the monthly Normont PTA meeting Tuesday, January 10 developing the subject "Home-School co-operation."

Moderator was Mrs. Carl Westfall; mothers included Mrs. Paul Hoffman, Mrs. Claude Fields, and Mrs. Peter Geisser; and Mrs. Simonck, sixth grade teacher, presented Barbara Bolton, Dale Gustin and Gordon Hooper on the panel.

Mrs. Robert Finley, program chairman, presented the interesting program.

Mrs. Max Green presided and J. Weare Pearson, principal, gave the inspirational message. During the business meeting continued sponsorship of the Blue Birds was assured. Plans were announced for a rummage sale early in February with the school children calling at the homes in the community for good clothing and other usable articles.

Mrs. James Likken, newly-appointed room mother chairman, and a committee of sixth grade mothers, were hostesses during the social hour.

Adult Class Sets Topic

"Home Backgrounds of the Adolescent" will be the topic of discussion for the Parent Education class to be held at Narbonne High School Wednesday, January 18 from 1 to 3 o'clock. Mrs. Beatrice Woodbridge will be the instructor.

Brother and sister relationship, parents setting the example and the feeling of stability will be discussed in their relationship to the adolescent.

ARRANGE MINT SALE . . . Mrs. John C. Hall, Mrs. Mnot Bugg, chairman; Mrs. Frank E. Sanchez, and Mrs. Donald Gray prepare for the current Camp Fire Girls' candy mint sale through January 28. Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds, Horizon Clubbers all over the area will be selling the boxes of candy mints in order to raise money for the extension of the Camp Fire Girls program to more girls in the area. Each girl who sells 100 boxes will be awarded ten days at Camp Yallani during the summer.

Fathers to Take Leading PTA Roles

W. E. Jeffery and H. W. Nansel again this year will take leading roles in the Father's Night program for Narbonne PTA on January 17.

Meeting in the boys' gymnasium of the high school at 7:30 o'clock Mr. Jeffery, as program chairman, will introduce Coach Walter Kuns and his students in a half-hour program of tumbling and other athletic feats. The musical portion of the program will include a sextette from the Boys' Glee Club singing "Old Man River" accompanied by Ronnie Thyne and "Song of the Vagabonds" with Danny Marsh accompanying. The group includes Larry Hatfield, Jerry Jeffery, Carl Strong, Bill Johnson, Ivan Keys, and Dick Gazeley. A trombone solo will be played by Bill Butterfield and Frank Algarme, tenor, will sing "The Desert Song." Accompanying these two numbers will be Eldridge Walker.

At the close of the meeting H. W. Nansel will be in charge of serving refreshments which will be in keeping with the occasion.

Meeting this morning in the office of vice-principal Miss Elizabeth Parks, the executive board will complete final plans for the night association meeting and plan a paper drive for February with Mrs. F. C. Elliott, ways and means chairman, in charge of picking up waste paper and magazines.

Tanda Okihii Camp Fire Activities

Two roller skating parties were planned at the last meeting of Tanda Okihii Camp Fire Girls held at Halldale Avenue School.

The meeting adjourned early to permit the girls to take orders for doughnuts, current money-making project.

Plans are being made by the group to participate in a sale of mixed fruit and mint flavored candy to be delivered soon. Proceeds from this and similar projects will be used for the extension of Camp Fire Girls program to more girls in the area.

CAMP FIRE MINT SALE IS SPONSORED LOCALLY

Purpose of the drive this year is to "Help Camp Fire Serve Girls." Funds will be used for Camp Fire activities, for the expansion of the staff in the field to service the widely demanded additional Camp Fire groups, and to help individual established groups with additional funds for equipment and activities.

A Campership of 10 days at Camp Yallani will be given to each girl selling 100 boxes of mints.

Five cents for every box of mints ordered and delivered by a group will be credited to that group to be used for Camp Fire Girls or Blue Bird activities, dues, equipment, or as a credit for an individual girl towards a camp fee or camp expenses.

Mrs. Peter Habousch Heads Altar Society

Mrs. Peter Habousch was installed president of the Altar Society of St. Margaret Mary Church succeeding herself for another year when the annual meeting of the organization was held Friday at the home of Mrs. Jean Gaydeski, 25408 Woodward avenue.

Mrs. Frank Farrell of Torrance, as installing officer, gave the badge of the other offices to Mrs. Charles Farrar, vice president; Mrs. Walter Kunath, secretary; Mrs. Richard Madden, financial secretary; Mrs. John Hoffman, treasurer; Mrs. Herman Ludwig, publicity officer.

Retiring and incoming officers were presented with lovely baby orchid corsages.

Mrs. Habousch presided and heard the report of the nominating committee by chairman Mrs. Harry Litton.

Reports on the activities of the guilds was a highlight of the meeting.

Saint Joan of Arc Guild announced a dance and card games to be held on the evening of January 14 at Harbor Hills auditorium. Card games will include pinocle, 500, and bridge. This affair is open to the public.

Saint Jude's Guild will have a baked food sale at 9 a.m. January 14 at Hugo Schmidt's Meat Market. A variety of hot dishes, home-baked pies, cookies and cakes will be available to those who attend the sale early.

A pot luck luncheon preceded the meeting which was attended by about 35 members and Rev. John V. Hegarty, church pastor.

186th PTA Sets Meet

Featured speaker of 186th Street PTA's meeting at 2 o'clock this afternoon will be Daniel Brostoff, who will augment his talk with a dental film, "It's Your Health."

Hostesses for the meeting will include Mesdames Floyd Sutherland, Fred Wurman, Claude Hill, and J. A. DeJafré.

Mrs. Samuel Dow, PTA president, opened her home for a delightful luncheon during the Christmas holidays. An exchange of gifts and games furnished the afternoon diversion.

Mothers Club Card Party

Card players are invited to attend a card party being sponsored by the Mothers Club of St. Peter and Paul's Church. The benefit affair will be held in the Parish hall, Wilmington, on Friday evening, January 27 at 8 o'clock.

Bridge, pinocle, buncio and 500 will be played and refreshments will be served at the close of play.

A parent should be utterly honest with his child—even if it means admitting to skepticism or doubt.
